SALOON MAN LEAVES BUT MAY RETURN

WARRANT IS ISSUED TO BRING BACK JOHN McLAUGHLIN TO TONOPAH

John McLaughlin took his departure from Tonopah this morning in peculiar fashion. Instead of embarking on the train he chartered an auto for Millers, where he bought a ticket for Hazen and boarded train 23.
Meanwhile a warrant was issued for his arrest on the charge of defrauding an innkeeper. It was wired to both Wabuska and Hazen. In the event that it is served Mr. McLaughlin, who is the proprietor of the M. & M. saloon, will be brought back to Tonopah. It is understood that civil actions may also be brought against him for the collection of money due.

Crew of German Diver Said to Have Jeered and Thrust Off Ancona's Victims

(By Associated Press.)
NAPLES, Nov. 12.—The Ancona's captain told the owners of the ship that no warning was given, and the passengers were given no opportunity to escape. He said the submarine first fired from a distance of about three miles, when the Ancona stopped, but the submarine continued the shelling. The passengers were ordered to take to the boats. The submarine then opened fire with all her guns, killing many in the boats. Many jumped overboard and when some of these clutched at the sides of the submarine they were pushed off with jeers and insults.

AUSTRIAN CONSULS ACCUSED OF CRIMES

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—It is alleged that Dr. Joseph Coricor, former Austrian consul at San Francisco, stated, and published articles to the effect, that Austrian consuls in America, working under the instructions of Consul General Nuber and Ambassador Bernstorff, were active in the dissemination of propaganda advocating the destruction of munitions factories and fomenting strikes in the establishments. The Austrian consulate, in a lengthy statement, has denounced the claims of Dr. Coricor. The department of justice has commenced an investigation.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND VOTES NOW CAST

BONANZA CONTEST GROWS MORE INTERESTING AND EXCITING EVERY DAY

Miss Eleanor Malone has displaced Miss Isabel Davis in the leadership of the race for the $1000 stock certificate in the Nevada Film Co., Inc., of Tonopah, but it is not a certainty that she will maintain her lead, as the other contestants are advancing.

People voting coupons cut from the Bonanza should observe the dates closely, as coupons that have expired in date will not be counted. There is plenty of time for new candidates to enter the field. Following is the standing of the candidates this morning:

Eleanor Malone	8150
Isabel Davis	5050
Addie Murphy	1000
Edna Sullivan	850
Frances Hickok	100

In order to make perfectly clear the conditions of the contest, the Bonanza will state that hereafter, instead of changing the dates on the coupons once a week, they will be changed daily and the date will be one day in advance of that of publication. All coupons must be voted daily. In the case of Manhattan and other outlying towns the provision is made that the postmark on the letter sending in the coupons must not be later than that stated on the coupons themselves, although allowance will be made for delay in the postal department in forwarding the letters.

QUICKSILVER COMMANDS VERY HIGH PRICE
